

The Takacs Quartet from Hungary has been described as one of the world's greatest quartets. You can hear them tonight in the first broadcast of their current New Zealand tour in CONCERT FROM AUCKLAND (Concert Programme, 8.00). The quartet was formed by cellist Andras Fejer in 1975, and since then has achieved outstanding success in international competition. The group is currently resident quartet at Boulder University in Colorado, United States.
